

FIRST VOTERS' DAY AT HARDING'S PORCH

Nominee Addresses Young Men and Women From Several States

NEW TOUR ON WEDNESDAY

Marion, O., Oct. 18.—First Voters' Day at Senator Harding's front porch brought to Marion today many delegations of young men and women to hear the Republican nominee make a plea for "America First" as the motto of those about to cast their ballots for the first time.

Indiana, Michigan, Illinois, Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Kentucky and Ohio sent the largest representation, although citizens from many other states were present. Several special trains brought delegations from outside Ohio, and many from the cities nearby came by motor. A bicycle delegation also was one of the features of the parade which preceded the senator's speech.

Also in the crowd were delegations from several Ohio counties, including a consolidated group from the Eighth Ohio Congressional district. The Ohio contingents were to have been received tomorrow, but two meetings were combined in order to give the nominee one day of rest before he leaves Wednesday morning for his last speaking trip of the campaign.

Senator Harding, although a Baptist, went to a Methodist church here yesterday to hear a former ardent advocate of the League of Nations arraign the pact and condemn President Wilson for his refusal to accept the reservations advocated by the Senate. Bishop Anderson, bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Kentucky and Ohio and came to Marion to deliver this particular sermon. He has made five trips to Europe since the armistice was signed.

Senator Harding declined to make public the name of the French emissary who, the Republican nominee in an address in Green Castle, Ind., said had assured him the French were willing to enter a new association of nations.

"I want to make it plain," said Senator Harding, "that I have had no discussion with an official of the French Government or the French Government. It is obvious that I am not in a position to deal with the French officially, and have never suggested that I had done so or expected to do so. I stated frankly that my assurances were informal."

Senator Harding further indicated that his revelation regarding the French was actuated by a desire to convince the American people that Europe was willing to follow America's lead in making a new compact. The word he had received, he said, exhibited the French attitude in much the same manner as the recent utterances of Lloyd George and Viscount Grey have shown the British frame of mind.

That view was strengthened for Senator Harding last night by Bishop Anderson, who told the nominee and the congregation that conversations with many European statesmen had convinced him that Europe was prepared gladly to accept any conditions America might attach in entering a League of Nations.

ROOSEVELT IN MICHIGAN

Charges Republicans With Appealing to Racial Hatreds

Grand Rapids, Mich., Oct. 18.—(By A. P.)—Charges that Republican campaign orators were making an appeal to racial hatreds and prejudices "which will continue to bear a fruit long after the coming election," were made by Franklin D. Roosevelt, Democratic vice presidential nominee in a series of speeches today through southwestern Michigan.

"These Republican speakers," Mr. Roosevelt said, "having their appeals on financial and personal motives of fact, are deliberately inflaming the passions of their hearers, creating enmity toward those countries whose soldiers on this side of the world are still allies and countries that, God willing, continue to be our allies in the great work that confronts the civilized nations in rebuilding the world after the storms of the great war."

"Wild charges are spread about by Republican orators who, raving about internationalism, would lead the ill-informed to believe that other countries are plotting against us. Foolish appeals are made for us to live our own lives and attend to our own affairs and not to meddle with those of other countries, just as though it was possible for us or any other nation to lead a life of complete isolation. The American public likes a clean-cut, straight-from-the-shoulder man, and that it does not like men in public life to 'put nationalism above party' and add their names to the list of signers."

Among those who signed the statement are:

Gay Stanton Ford, dean graduate school, University of Minnesota.

George Henry Fox, formerly president New York State Medical Society.

Charles H. Haskins, dean graduate school Harvard University.

Hamilton Holt Names Hundred Who Bolt G. O. P. on League Issue

CALLS HARDING IDEA LATE

New York, Oct. 18.—A joint statement by "over 100 representative men and women who have usually supported the Republican or Progressive tickets," announcing their intention to vote for Cox and Roosevelt and those senatorial candidates "who stand honestly and frankly for ratification of the treaty and adherence to the league," was made public here last night by Hamilton Holt, magazine editor.

That statement set forth that "it is now too late to talk of a new 'association of nations' to be created under Republican auspices," and, repudiating the present Republican leadership that "has permitted the Republican party to become a 'little America' party," urged all Republicans and Progressives to "put nationalism above party" and add their names to the list of signers."

DISCUSS U. S. FINANCES

Bankers Hold Committee Meetings Preparatory to Convention

Washington, Oct. 18.—(By A. P.)—Preparatory to the first general session here tomorrow of the annual convention of the American Bankers' Association various phases of financial problems confronting the nation were discussed today at sessions of more than a score of the association's committees.

The committees included those dealing with federal and state legislation, national relations, education, Americanization and thrift, agriculture, commerce and marine, currency, insurance and a variety of other subjects. Each committee will report later to the convention proper, which will hold general sessions tomorrow, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday mornings.

Afternoons will be given over to sectional meetings and to sightseeing.

150 DIPLOMATS ON TOUR

Will Consider Possibilities of Wireless Telephone for Work

New Brunswick, N. J., Oct. 18.—(By A. P.)—Possibilities of "calling up" far-off foreign countries on the wireless telephone for reports of important diplomatic situations are being considered by more than 150 diplomats and State Department officials who arrived here from Washington on a special train early today. They stopped here on the first leg of an inspection tour of the leading wireless stations along the Atlantic coast.

The program for the forenoon included a demonstration at the naval radio station here, of the apparatus that kept President Wilson in telephonic connection with America on his return trip from the Paris Peace Conference.

DEMAND SLACKERS' NAMES

Legion Members Irritated by Baker's Delay in Publishing List

Washington, Oct. 18.—A new clash between Secretary Baker and the American Legion is imminent because of the unexplained delay of the War Department in issuing a list of the names for publication for more than 100,000 draft dodgers.

The Legion, at its Cleveland convention, demanded the list be made public immediately. Officers of the Legion have written Mr. Baker concerning the matter, according to F. W. Galbraith, Legion commander, but the secretary of war has not replied. Mr. Galbraith let it be known that the Legion will push the matter until the list is issued or the reasons for withholding it are fully explained.

MOTHERS AND SONS FOR PACT, SAYS COX

Candidate Appeals to First Voters for Support of League

By the Associated Press
Syracuse, N. Y., Oct. 18.—Governor Cox today opened his second eastern campaign with an address here to first voters, urging them to disregard partisanship and to vote as Americans.

"Americanization," said the Democratic presidential candidate, "is but another word for construction. Americanization is not selfishness. It means that we so love this freedom of America that wherever in the whole world the name of America is mentioned it shall mean honor, loyalty, progress, humanity and peace. To about 'America first' and then oppose making America first throughout the world is to turn our backs on progress and on the ideals which the framers of our great constitution wrote into the soul of America."

"Therefore when I talk of the League of Nations I am presenting no new spirit, but simply endeavoring to keep the faith of America."

Stating that first voters represent a new generation, Governor Cox said that civilization was like a "relay race," each generation taking the ball from the preceding and contributing its share toward world progress.

"Some people," said the governor, "are not willing to take the ball, and thereby lose the race by slipping back. There can be nothing more reassuring than that this great army of first voters, composed of millions of young men, will approach the ballot box this fall with the same patriotism with which they stood in the front trenches."

"I find that the young men and the mothers will insist that we become a part of the League of Nations. The young men who are first voters will find themselves in distinguished company with the sons and made permanent by this year, for the mothers of America have been given the rights to which they are entitled. I have no doubt what the mothers of America will do in the forthcoming election; nor have I a single doubt what the young men will do. Mother and son link the two generations which stand for a peace won by the sons and made permanent by the mothers of America."
